

LOKNAYAK JAYAPRAKASH NARAYAN
NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CRIMINOLOGY AND FORENSIC SCIENCE

ANNUAL REPORT

2013-14

सत्यमेव जयते

लोक नायक जयप्रकाश नारायण राष्ट्रीय अपराध शास्त्र एवं विधि-विज्ञान संस्थान

LNJN National Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science

Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India

DELHI

Website: nicfs.nic.in

INDIA

TRAINING COURSES/ SEMINARS HELD DURING THE YEAR

- 1. Course on Crime against Women & Children was held from 01 April 2013 to 05 April 2013 with the objectives; (i) To overview and analyse the trend, magnitude and forms of crime against women and children in India and in other countries, (ii) To sensitise participants about recent legislative and administrative measures for the protection of women and children from crime, (iii) To identify avenues for better coordination amongst Criminal Justice Functionaries for fighting against crime against women and children, (iv) To suggest ways and means for prevention and control of crime against women and children in all spheres of social life, through peaceful and amicable manner, and (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 30 Officers of level of Police, Judiciary, Prosecution, CPO, CFSLs/ FSL from 17 States and 1 from RPF. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.
- 2. Induction Course in Forensic Science for Judicial Officers was held from 08 April 2013 to 12 April 2013 with the objectives; (i) To provide basic knowledge of various disciplines of forensic science. (ii) To make the participants aware of the importance of physical evidence. (iii) To apprise the participants about handling of various clue material at the scene of crime. (iv) To apprise the participants about the techniques of the laboratory examination. (v) To expose them to the developments in the field of forensic science with a view to utilize science in the investigation of crime and in trials. It was attended by 12 Officers of level of Police, Judiciary, Prosecution, CPO, CFSLs/ FSL. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.
- 3. Course on Investigation of Road Accidents was held from 15 April 2013 to 19 April 2013 with the objectives; (i) To sensitise the participants about importance of trace evidence available in motor accident cases, (ii) To familiarize the participants about need for proper evaluation of injury, if any (iii) To identify various factors leading to contradictions between eyewitness accounts and opinion of Medico-legal experts (iv) To expose the participants to latest techniques available for use in motor accident investigation and trials (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 11 Officers of level of Police, Judiciary, Prosecution, CPO, CFSLs/ FSL. Shri P. Sharma, Sr. Scientific Assistant (Toxicology) directed the course.

- 4. Seminar on Crime Against Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes was held from 17 April 2013 to 18 April 2013 with the objectives; (i) To examine existing legislative and administrative measures for prevention and control of crime against SC/ST. (ii) To analyse difficulties and constraints in investigation and prosecution of cases relating to crime against SC/ST. (iii) To evolve by discussion ways and means for prevention and control of crime against SC/ST. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 35 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP/DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel and Prison/ Correctional/ Welfare Administrators. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.
- 5. Course on Digital Evidence was held from 23 April 2013 to 26 April 2013 with the objectives; (i) To sensitise participants to various techniques of handling, collection and preservation of digital evidences. (ii) To acquaint participants with the procedures of packaging and forwarding of digital evidence and maintaining chain- of- custody. (iii) To make the participants aware of the legal provisions of Information Technology Act & its amendments and emerging trends of Cyber Crimes. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 26 Officers of level of Dy. SP/ ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs, Forensic Science Teachers. Shri J K Semwal, Assistant Professor (Document) directed the course.
- 6. Course on Advancing Justice through DNA Technology was held from 30 April 2013 to 02 May 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the significance of Forensic DNA testing in civil and criminal cases. (ii) To update the participants regarding the latest advances in Forensic DNA Testing. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 39 Officer of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP and above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

7. Course on Expert Testimony in Criminal Trial was held from 06 May 2013 to 10 May 2013 with the objectives; (i) To discuss issues in credibility of expert testimony in different disciplines of Forensic Science and Forensic Medicine. (ii) To discuss the grounds on which expert evidence is based. (iii) To enlighten the participants about the limitations of expert opinion. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 26 Officer of level of Judges / Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP and Above, Prosecution Officials, SSO and above from CFSLs / FSLs. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.
8. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 09 May 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 28 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy SP/ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel including 4 international participants. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.
9. Course on Explosives and Explosion Investigation was held from 13 May 2013 to 17 May 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to identify and collect evidence material from the crime scene. (ii) To familiarize the participants with various types of improvised explosive devices and explosive substances used. (iii) To expose the participants to latest instrumental techniques useful in analysis of explosives. (iv) To acquaint the participants with the equipment used for detection of explosives substances and devices including land mines bombs. (v) To expose the participants to evidentiary requirements for successful prosecution. (vi) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 25 Officer of level of Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs. Dr. J.R. Sethi, Assistant Professor (Chemistry) directed the course.

10. Seminar on Juvenile Justice Administration was held from 28 May 2013 to 30 May 2013 was attended by 33 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP/DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel and Prison/ Correctional/ Welfare Administrators. Shri Sankalp Anand, Lecturer (Sociology) directed the course.

11. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 30 May 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 27 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy SP/ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel including 4 international participants. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

12. Course on Document Examination for CJF was held from 03 June 2013 to 07 June 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the nature and scope of Forensic Document Examination and to make them 'document conscious'. (ii) To enlighten the participants about the preliminary techniques and examination of disputed documents. (iii) To appreciate requirement of the expert evidence in the trial Courts. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 29 Officers of level of Judges / Magistrates, Dy. SP, ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Custom Officers SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs. Shri J K Semwal, Assistant Professor (Document) directed the course.

13. Course on Victimology and Victim Justice was held from 01 July 2013 to 05 July 2013 with the objectives; i) To understand the basic philosophy, principle and scope of Victimology ii) To identify the factors propelling victimization (iii) To know the dynamics inherent in victim-offender relationship in crime causation. (iv) To learn about the patterns of victimization (v) To assess the victim-assistance programmes of the governmental and non-governmental organizations. (vi) To discuss the participation of the victims in the Criminal Justice System. It was attended by 24 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP and above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Officer & Prison/Correctional /Welfare including 4 international participants. Shri Sankalp Anand, Lecturer (Sociology) directed the course.

14. Course on Forensic Science and Forensic Medicine was held from 08 July 2013 to 12 July 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the scope of applicability of Forensic Science and forensic medicine in Criminal Justice System. (ii) To update the participants regarding the latest advances in Forensic Science and Forensic Medicine. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 37 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 4 international participants. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

15. Course on Management of Antisocial & Criminal Behaviour was held from 15 July 2013 to 19 July 2013 with the objectives; (i) To apprise the participants with the dynamics of undesirable as well as anti-social and criminal behaviour (ii) To acquaint them with different ways and means which can be helpful to change undesirable and criminal behaviour (iii) To make them aware of different approaches to deal with deviant and criminal behaviour. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 41 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 4 international participants. Dr. B.N. Chattoraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

16. Course on Advances & Latest Techniques in Forensic Investigation was held from 22 July 2013 to 26 July 2013 with the objectives; (i) To make the participants aware of the importance of physical evidence (ii) To familiarize the participants with the present stage of scientific knowledge as applied to investigation & trial of criminal cases. (iii) To expose them to latest developments in Forensic Science and their status in courts. (iv) To provide perspective for objective evaluation of expert evidence. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 33 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP/DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel including 4 international participants. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

17. Course on Adulteration of Petroleum Products was held from 29 July 2013 to 02 August 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the enforcement agencies with the proper procedure for sampling, packing and forwarding of adulterated fuel samples. (ii) To familiarize them with critical parameters of analysis of motor gasoline and diesel. (iii) To evolve probable solution of analysis of these samples from the point of view of successful trial. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 24 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 4 international participants. Dr. J.R. Sethi, Assistant Professor (Chemistry) directed the course.

18. Workshop on Speaker Identification and Tape Authentication was held from 06 August 2013 to 08 August 2013 with the objectives; (i) To acquaint the participants about the importance of Audio-video evidence (ii) To make the participants aware of various recording media and recording of samples. (iii) To expose the participants to various techniques and protocol for handling of Audio-Video evidence and to authenticate the recordings, using advanced techniques and tools. (iv) To expose the participants to develop and upgrade this technique in their Institutes/Labs. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 41 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 4 international participants. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.

19. Course on Examination of Important Security Documents and Electronic Printouts was held from 19 August 2013 to 23 August 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarise the participants about the infrastructure available in the country for printing of Security documents (ii) To make the participants aware of various latest security features present in Indian Passports/Visa, bank notes and other security documents (iii) To familiarise the participants about diverse use and utilities of various modern office automation equipment for generating counterfeits/fake documents (iv) To make participants familiar with the techniques of detection of fake/counterfeit security documents (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 44 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 5 international participants. Shri J K Semwal, Assistant Professor (Document) directed the course.

20. Course on Crime against Women & Children was held from 02 September 2013 to 06 September 2013 with the objectives; (i) To overview and analyse the trend, magnitude and forms of crime against women and children in India and in other countries. (ii) To sensitise participants about recent legislative and administrative measures for the protection of women and children from crime. (iii) To identify avenues for better coordination amongst Criminal Justice Functionaries for fighting against crime against women and children. (iv) To suggest ways and means for prevention and control of crime against women and children in all spheres of social life, through peaceful and amicable manner. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. . It was attended by 42 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 4 international participants. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.

21. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 05 September 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 23 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy SP/ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

22. Course on Individual Identification Techniques was held from 09 September 2013 to 13 September 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the significance of forensic evidence materials used in individual identification. (ii) To update the participants regarding latest advances in forensic techniques of individual identification. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 33 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Government Medical Officers, Defence Officers and SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs, Forensic Science Teachers, Finger Print Experts including 4 international participants. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

23. Course on Human Rights was held from 07 October 2013 to 11 October 2013 with the objectives; (i) To acquaint the participants with the U N Conventions, the Constitution of India & other provisions and institutions relating to Human Rights. (ii) To instil a spirit of humanism for all human beings (including suspects , accused and convicts) in the minds of the participants. (iii) To evolve through consultative participation strategies and measures for reduction of Human Rights violations in India (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 32 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP / DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Prisons / Correctional / Welfare Administrators & Officers of State Human Rights Commissions. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.

24. Workshop on Imaging & Video Technology was held from 15 October 2013 to 18 October 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants with the functioning of digital, still and video cameras, memory cards, DVRs and digital printers. (ii) To make them understand, how computer and various softwares are used for image processing, morphing, image enhancement, image restoration, image compression, cut and paste techniques, video editing and their analysis. (iii) To make them understand the legal admissibility, reliability and limitations of these techniques. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 14 Officers of level of Dy. SP/ACP & Above, SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs, Forensic Science Teachers including 4 international participants. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.

25. Seminar on Crime against Senior Citizens was held from 17 October 2013 to 19 October 2013 with the objectives; (i) To analyse vulnerability of senior citizens to crime in the context of social change and development. (ii) To discuss on various legal provisions particularly Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 and the issues involved in their proper implementation. (iii) To analyse the role of officials of the Criminal Justice System in protecting senior citizens and for the prevention and control of crime against them. (iv) To provide a forum for interaction amongst the Officers of Criminal Justice System and Experts and NGOs working in the field. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 29 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, SP/DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, Prison/Correctional/Welfare Administrators including 4 international participants. Dr. B.N. Chatteraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

26. Course on Scientific Investigation of Crime Involving Firearms was held from 22 October 2013 to 25 October 2013 with the objectives; (i) To make the participants aware of related physical evidence and to discuss various points concerning crime scene examination (ii) To familiarise the participants about proper evaluation of gun-shot injuries. (iii) To identify various factors leading to contradictions between eye-witness accounts and opinions of autopsy surgeons, and to discuss how to avoid such contradictions (iv) To expose the participants to latest instrumentation techniques useful in examination of physical evidence (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 29 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, SSO and above from CFSL/FSL, Medical Jurist. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

27. Induction Course in Forensic Science for freshly recruited DJS was held from 21 October 2013 to 01 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the basics of Forensic Science. (ii) To acquaint the participants regarding potentials and limitations of Forensic Science in criminal investigation and trial as well as in civil disputes. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 25 newly recruited Judicial Officers & Prosecutors. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

28. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 24 October 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 27 Crime Prevention Officers. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

29. Course on Drug Law Enforcement & Forensic Science was held from 28 October 2013 to 01 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To provide exposure to the participants about the role of Forensic Science in drug law enforcement. (ii) To enhance their knowledge about the use of forensic evidence in drug law enforcement. (iii) To help them to identify their role in a multi-dimensional drug control strategy. (iv) To familiarize them with the procedures of sampling, packing and forwarding of drugs recovered from the suspect persons or places, and with the Laboratory procedures in the analysis of these samples. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 30 Officers of level of Special Judges, Public Prosecutors (NDPS), Officers on CAPF/Assam Rifles, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Defence Officers & SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs including 5 international participants. Dr. J.R. Sethi, Assistant Professor (Chemistry) directed the course.

30. Course on Crime and Justice was held from 04 November 2013 to 08 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To make the participants understand the dynamics of crime and criminal behaviour (ii) To expose the participants to new challenges of the criminal justice system and to explore their prevention and control strategies (iii) To facilitate interaction amongst Officers from different sectors of the Criminal Justice System, with a view to bringing about better understanding of problems and coordination (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 27 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP /DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, Prison /Welfare Correctional Administrators. Dr. B.N. Chattoraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

31. Course on Wildlife Crime and Forensic Science was held from 11 November 2013 to 16 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To generate awareness among the participants regarding various types of wildlife crimes (ii) To familiarize and update the participants with various forensic techniques and evidence materials which may help during the investigation and trial of Wildlife Crimes and Trades. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 34 Officers of level of Judges / Magistrates, Dy. SP / ACP and above, Prosecution Officials, SSO and above from CFSLs / FSLs, Forest Officers including 4 international participants. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

32. Induction Course in Forensic Science for Police Officers & Forensic Scientists was held from 11 November 2013 to 16 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To provide basic knowledge of various disciplines of forensic science. (ii) To make the participants aware of the importance of physical evidence. (iii) To apprise the participants about handling of various clue material at the scene of crime. (iv) To apprise the participants about the techniques of the laboratory examination. (v) To expose them to the developments in the field of forensic science with a view to utilize science in the investigation of crime and in trials. It was attended by 29 newly recruited Prosecutors. Dr. J.R. Sethi, Assistant Professor (Chemistry) directed the course.

33. Seminar on Deviance among Street Children was held from 19 November 2013 to 21 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To analyse at national and international level the nature of exploitations and harassment of various forms of street children and their vulnerability to deviant behaviour. (ii) To highlight the necessity and importance for adopting more humane attitudes on the part of the juvenile justice functionaries and community towards street children (iii) To provide a critical appreciation of different welfare measures undertaken by the government and non-government organisations for the welfare and rehabilitation of street children (iv) Need and mode of co-ordination between governmental and non-governmental agencies for dealing with the problems of street children. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 28 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP / ACP and above, Prosecution Officials, Welfare Administrators. Dr. B.N. Chatteraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

34. Workshop on Imaging & Video Technology for CISF was held from 25 November 2013 to 26 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants with the functioning of digital, still and video cameras, memory cards, DVRs and digital printers. (ii) To make them understand, how computer and various softwares are used for image processing, morphing, image enhancement, image restoration, image compression, cut and paste techniques, video editing and their analysis. (iii) To make them understand the legal admissibility, reliability and limitations of these techniques. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by Crime Prevention Officers. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

35. Course on Prevention and Control of Drug Abuse was held from 25 November 2013 to 29 November 2013 with the objectives; (i) To understand the scenario of drug supply in India. (ii) To appraise the participants about the scientific explanation of drug addiction. (iii) To appraise the participants about the role of society, police and NGO's in prevention and control of drug abuse. (iv) To analyze the efficacy of drug control laws and their status of implementation. (v) To provide a platform for the senior level functionaries of Criminal Justice System to exchange their ideas and experience regarding the tackling of problem of drug abuse at national level. It was attended by 19 Officers of level of Judges/ Magistrates, Dy. SP/ ACP & above, Prosecution Officials & Prison/ Correctional/ Welfare Administrators. Shri Sankalp Anand, Lecturer (Sociology) directed the course.

36. Course on Criminology & Forensic Science was held from 02 December 2013 to 13 December 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 28 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy SP/ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel including 4 international participants. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

37. Course on Document Examination for CJF was held from 16 December 2013 to 20 December 2013 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants about the nature and scope of Forensic Document Examination and to make them 'document conscious'. (ii) To enlighten the participants about the preliminary techniques and examination of disputed documents. (iii) To appreciate requirement of the expert evidence in the trial Courts. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 35 Officers of level of Judges / Magistrates, Dy. SP, ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Custom Officers SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs including 5 international participants. Shri J K Semwal, Assistant Professor (Document) directed the course.

38. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 19 December 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 26 Crime Prevention Officers. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

39. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for CBI was held on 20 December 2013 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 32 Crime Prevention Officers. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

40. Workshop on Quality Control Norms for FSL was held from 24 December 2013 to 27 December 2013 with the objectives; (i) To sensitize participant about quality management dimension of FSLs. (ii) To discuss the existing quality management system of FSLs and improve the level of their performance & strengthen their operation (iii) To familiarize them with the National and International guidelines of accreditation of FSLs (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 12 Officers of level of Judges / Magistrates, Forensic Scientists of CFSLs / FSLs, Forensic Science Teachers. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.

41. Course on Correctional Administration was held from 30 December 2013 to 03 January 2014. Shri Sankalp Anand, Lecturer (Sociology) directed the course.

42. Special Orientation Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for IPS Trainee

Officers was held on 02 January 2014 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by IPS Trainee Officers. Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) directed the course.

43. Course on Forensic Aspects of Fire & Arson Investigation was held from 06 January 2014 to 10 January 2014 with the objectives; (i) To apprise the participants about various types of inflammable materials, explosives and devices used in fire and arson. (ii) To expose the participants to locate, collect, preserve and forward physical evidence to forensic science laboratory. (iii) To acquaint the participants with the latest methods and technique used in the investigation of fire and arson cases. (iv) To enable the participants to appreciate, evaluate and interpret the opinion of the expert (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 31 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy. SP/ACP & above, Prosecution Officials, SSO & above from CFSLs/FSLs and Fire Officers. Dr. J.R. Sethi, Assistant Professor (Chemistry) directed the course.

44. Seminar on Delay in Criminal Trial was held from 06 January 2014 to 10 January 2014 with the objectives; (i) To identify legal, procedural and other reasons for delay in criminal trial in India. (ii) To analyse the implications of delayed criminal trial on victim and society. (iii) To discuss the problems and constraints resulting in delay in trial. (iv) To evolve by discussion plausible solutions of the problem within existing legal frame work. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 33 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP / DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Prisons / Correctional / Administrators. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.

45. Seminar on Crime against Sr. Citizens was held from 29 January 2014 to 31 January 2014 with the objectives; (i) To analyse vulnerability of senior citizens to crime in the context of social change and development. (ii) To discuss on various legal provisions particularly Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 and the issues involved in their proper implementation. (iii) To analyse the role of officials of the Criminal Justice System in protecting senior citizens and for the prevention and control of crime against them. (iv) To provide a forum for interaction amongst the Officers of Criminal Justice System and Experts and NGOs working in the field. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 31 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, SP/DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, Prison/Correctional/Welfare Administrator. Dr. B.N. Chattoraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

46. Workshop on Preservation of Scene of Fire & Collection of Evidence was held from 04 February 2014 to 06 February 2014 with the objectives; (i) To familiarize the participants with the behaviour of fire and its effects on material evidence during fire and arson. (ii) To acquaint them with the primary purpose of fire investigation and conclude whether the fire was accidental, natural or deliberate. (iii) To impart knowledge on collection, packing, transportation and maintenance of the chain of custody of evidence during the investigation of fire. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 16 Officers of level of Police Officers, Forensic Scientists of CFSLs / FSLs, Fire Officers. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.

47. Course on Human Rights was held from 10 February 2014 to 14 February 2014 with the objectives; (i) To acquaint the participants with the U N Conventions, the Constitution of India & other provisions and institutions relating to Human Rights. (ii) To instil a spirit of humanism for all human beings (including suspects, accused and convicts) in the minds of the participants. (iii) To evolve through consultative participation strategies and measures for reduction of Human Rights violations in India (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 26 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP / DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Prisons / Correctional / Welfare Administrators & Officers of State Human Rights Commissions including 1 international participant. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.

48. Course on Advances & Latest Techniques in Forensic Investigation was held from 17 February 2014 to 21 February 2014 with the objectives; (i) To make the participants aware of the importance of physical evidence (ii) To familiarize the participants with the present stage of scientific knowledge as applied to investigation & trial of criminal cases. (iii) To expose them to latest developments in Forensic Science and their status in courts. (iv) To provide perspective for objective evaluation of expert evidence. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 31 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP/DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

49. Workshop on Forensic Evidence of Human Trafficking was held from 24 February 2014 to 26 February 2014 with the objectives; (i) To acquaint the participants regarding various types of human trafficking (ii) To update the participants about the types of forensic evidence materials that may be recovered in such cases and the techniques of their analysis. (iii) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 31 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, Judges/Magistrates, DCP and Above, Prosecution Officials, SSO and above from CFSLs/FSLs including 1 international participant. Dr. K. P. S. Kushwaha, Assistant Professor (Biology) directed the Course.

50. Special Course in Criminology & Forensic Science for BSF was held on 27 February 2014 with the objectives; (i) To enable the participants to analyze and develop a systematic understanding of the crime phenomenon in a changing society and to understand other useful concepts of Criminology. (ii) To sensitize the participants about importance of physical evidence and the methods of collection, preservation and transportation of physical evidence (iii) To expose the participants to developments in the fields of Criminology and Forensic Science for a scientific approach in crime investigation and trial. (iv) To enable them to appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 28 Crime Prevention Officers. Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) directed the course.

51. Course on Expediting Justice through Research was held from 03 March 2014 to 07 March 2014 with the objectives; (i) To induce a scientific temper in the minds of participants in realizing and examining realities associated with crime and criminal behaviour in socio-psychological contours. (ii) To apprise participants about the relevance and usefulness of social research in expediting the processes of justice. (iii) To familiarize them with major steps, procedures, methodologies to be followed in pursuing research and explain them research design and different modalities of processing, treatment and analysis of data, and (iv) To expose them to the diverse use and utilities of computer in the processing and analysis of research data. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 31 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officers, SP/DCP and above, Prosecution Officials, Prisons/Correctional/Welfare Administrators. Dr. B.N. Chattoraj, Professor (Criminology) directed the course.

52. Course on Crime Scene Evidence was held from 10 March 2014 to 14 March 2014 with the objectives; (i) To make the participants aware of possible visible, trace and invisible evidence available at crime scene and their importance in criminal investigation and trial. (ii) To expose participants to various techniques and procedures about location, collection, preservation and forwarding of physical evidence to FSL. (iii) To sensitise participants about techniques available in Forensic Science for assistance in criminal investigation and trials. (iv) To enable the participants appreciate, evaluate and interpret expert opinion. (v) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 33 Officers of level of Judges/Magistrates, Dy SP/ACP & Above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel, SSO & above from CFSLS/FSLs. Dr J K Modi, Assistant Professor (Ballistics) directed the course.

53. Seminar on Prevention & Control of Corruption was held from 25 March 2014 to 27 March 2014 with the objectives; (i) To sensitize participants about causes and impact of corruption in India. (ii) To discuss important provisions of existing legislation and case laws decided by various courts for prevention and control of corruption. (iii) To provide a platform to discuss problems and constraints faced in handling cases of corruption and to evolve ways and means for solving them. (iv) To evolve from collective experience of participants such specific suggestions and action points (for higher efficiency) which can be implemented with minimal expenditure and without changes in laws. It was attended by 34 Officers of level of Higher Judicial Service Officer, SP/DCP & above, Prosecution Officials, Defence Personnel & Prison /Correctional/Welfare Administrator. Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) directed the course.

IMPORTANT ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

Graduation Ceremony

The Institute celebrated 'Institute Day, 2013' on 28 September 2013. It organized Graduation Ceremony of Students of 2009-11 and 2010-12 batches on 28 September 2013. Internationally renowned Jurist Prof. Upender Bakshi, Professor Emeritus, University of Warwick (UK) and Former Vice Chancellor, Delhi University delivered the Graduation Address on the topic "Towards Normative Compliance and enforcement" Prof. D.K. Bandopadhyay, Vice Chancellor, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University distributed the testamurs. Sh Khurshid Ahmed Ganai, Additional Secretary (F), MHA was the Guest of Honour. Sh. Ranjit Sinha, Director, CBI presided over the ceremony.

FACULTY NEWS

Seminars/ Workshop/ Conference attended by faculty

Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) attended the NASSCOM-DSCI Annual Information Security Summit held on 10-12 December 2013 in New Delhi.

Dr. BN Chhatoraj, Professor (Criminology) participated in UGC Confidential Workshop for setting up question papers and checking answer keys from 25-29 October, 2013.

Dr. A.C. Rajvanshi, Dy. Director (Forensic Science) delivered a key-note address in the seminar on significance of collection & preservation of physical evidences in crime scene investigation on 15-16 February 2014 organized by RFSL, Gwalior.

Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) was the external examiner for the evaluation of PhD thesis and vive-voce in the Department of Humanities and Social Science, India Institute of Technology, Roorkee.

Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) conducted research project along with Dr. BN Ramesh, IG CRPF on “Links between Juvenile Delinquency and Recruitment of Militants in Kashmir” which was sponsored by National Police Academy, MHA.

Ms. Minakshi Sinha, Reader (Sociology) delivered a live telecast lecture on Vyas Channel organized by Consortium for Educational Communication, UGC, India, on 10-12 October 2013.

Publications by the faculty

Sh. Sandeep Mittal, DIG (Admn) published a paper titled “Perspectives in Cyber Security, the Future of Cyber Malware” in Indian Journal of Criminology, Chennai in 2013.

Dr. BN Chhatoraj, Professor (Criminology) published an article titled “Crime Prevention & Criminal Justice in the Context of Development: Realities and Perspectives” in ‘The Perspectives’ Vol. XIV No. 1 in July 2013.

STUDENTS NEWS

A. New enrolments in MA / MSc in 2013-14

MA Criminology

Reenu D N	Vignesh Babu V	V Manikandan
Kaushal Kumar Malik	Bhaswati Bora	Sonia Dahiya
Aparajeet Chaturvedi	Jai Kishan J	Soumya Srivastava

MSc Forensic Science

Siddharth Dangi	Mangesh Lata	Rahul Bharti
S Chubatola	Santosh Ranjan	Harjas Preet Kaur
Vikas	Naina	Pirtosh
Deepika Jain	Hemant Kumar Gupta	Monika Lamba
Prashant Kalikotay	Archana Balhara	Rinku Joshi
Barkha Budhiraja	Vinita Sindhi	Kumari Namrata pandey
Sudhanshu Shekher Tiwari	Aanchal Maitray	Deepa Gupta
N Vaishnavi	Bikram Bhattacharjee	Richika Tyagi
Geeta Bhati	Deepika Kakkar	Mohammad Imran
Asha Vidyadharan	Anshu Maheshree	Neha Jain

B. The undermentioned students graduated in the year 2013-14

MA Criminology

Priyanka Chandola	Priyanka Gupta	Rameshwar Nath
Swtha Thomas	Komal	Theju Kumar C
Tamanna Rathi	Avinash	Harish Singh Bisht

MSc Forensic Science

Ashutosh Pande	Risha Jasmine Nathan	Mansa V. Nair
----------------	----------------------	---------------

Jaya Sethi	Parveen Kumar Yadav	Pallab Samanta
Faraz Khan	Chanchal Yadav	Jyoti Kumari
Deepak Dagar	Sushmit Ghosh	Nidhi Sagarwal
Akhil Benny	Deepika Piplani	Baishakhi Datta
Navodati Banerjee	Suchita Rawat	Palak Aulakh
Shivi Sharma	Anam Burney	Renu Kamal
Amrita Massan	Preeti	Upasana Chandra
Siddharth Hojai	Prajakta Harne	Ekta Arya
Vimal Kumar Meena	Ravinder Paul Verma	Vijant Kumar
Lovina Sehra	Maalini Ramalo

MISCELLANEOUS

We Welcome

Sh. Uday Raj Singh joined this Institute on 30th May 2013 as Junior Scientific Assistant on deputation from Tihar Jail

Sh. Feroj Khan joined this Institute on 13th March 2013 as Lab Assistant on deputation from Haryana Police

Sh. Kanhaya Lal joined this Institute on 23rd December 2013 as Lower Division Clerk

Sh. Gurmeet Singh joined this Institute on 01st May 2013 on contractual basis

Farewell

Sh. K. K. Grover retired from his service as Stenographer on 31st July 2013.

Smt. Alka Jhamb retired from her service as Upper Division Clerk on 06th July 2013.

Sh. J. S. Rawat retired from her service as Upper Division Clerk on 31st March 2014.

Obituary

Sh. Kanti Prasad, Lower Division Clerk, expired on 01st April 2013 after long illness.

हिन्दी पखवाड़ा

लोक नायक जयप्रकाश नारायण राष्ट्रिय अपराध शस्त्र एवं विधि विज्ञान संस्थान में राजभाषा इंदी के प्रयोग को बढ़ावा देने के उद्देश्य से संस्थान में सितम्बर, 2013 में हिन्दी पखवाड़े का आयोजन किया गया और इसके दौरान विभिन्न हिन्दी प्रतियोगिताएं आयोजित की गयीं।

इस पखवाड़े के दौरान जिन प्रतियोगिताओं का आयोजन किया गया, उनके बारे में संक्षेप में विवरण निम्न है:

हिन्दी टंकण प्रतियोगिता (कर्मचारी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं पदनाम	पुरस्कार
1	श्री सुधीर कुमार, आशुलिपिक	प्रथम
2	श्रीमती दर्शना, अ.लि.श्रे.	द्वितीय
3	श्री पीपाटिल.एम., हैड कांस्टेबल	तृतीय
4	श्रीमती सुजाता चावला, आशुलिपिक	सांत्वना पुरस्कार
5	श्री सोनू कुमार, एमटीएस	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाण पत्र-
6	श्रीमती ऊषा रानी, पुस्तकालय एवं सूचना सहायक	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-
7	श्रीमती सुचेता जौहर, वेब पेज डिजाइनर	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-

हिन्दी भाषण प्रतियोगिता (कर्मचारी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं पदनाम	पुरस्कार
1	श्री उदय राज सिंह, कनिष्ठ वैज्ञानिक सहायक	प्रथम
2	श्री सुभाष शर्मा, एमटीएस	द्वितीय
3	श्री सुधीर कुमार, आशुलिपिक	तृतीय
4	श्री चन्द्र मोहन, अ .लि.श्रे.	सांत्वना पुरस्कार
5	श्रीमती ऊषा रानी, पुस्तकालय एवं सूचना सहायक	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-

हिन्दी निबंध प्रतियोगिता (कर्मचारी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं पदनाम	पुरस्कार
1	श्री चन्द्र मोहन, अ .लि.श्रे.	प्रथम
2	श्री सुधीर कुमार, आशुलिपिक	द्वितीय
3	श्रीमती दीपा पांडे, प्रशासनिक अधिकारी	तृतीय
4	श्री सोनू कुमार शर्मा, पुस्तकालय परिचर	सांत्वना पुरस्कार
5	श्री पीपाटिल .एम., हैड कांस्टेबल	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-
6	श्री सोनू कुमार, एमटीएस	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-

हिन्दी टिप्पण एवं आलेखन प्रतियोगिता (कर्मचारी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं पदनाम	पुरस्कार
1	श्रीमती दीपा पांडे, प्रशासनिक अधिकारी	प्रथम
2	श्री पीपाटिल .एम., हैड कांस्टेबल	द्वितीय
3	श्री चन्द्र मोहन, अ .लि.श्रे.	तृतीय
4	श्री सुधीर कुमार, आशुलिपिक	सांत्वना पुरस्कार
5	श्री सोनू शर्मा, पुस्तकाल परिचर	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-
6	श्री बाला राम, आशुलिपिक	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-
7	श्री उदय राज सिंह, कनिष्ठ वैज्ञानिक सहायक	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-
8	श्री फिरोज़ खान, प्रयोगशाला सहायक	प्रतियोगिता में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए प्रमाणपत्र-

हिन्दी भाषण प्रतियोगिता (विद्यार्थी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं कक्षा	पुरस्कार
1	श्री अपराजित चतुर्वेदी, स्नातकोत्तर रप्रथम समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	प्रथम
2	श्री कौशल कुमार मलिक, स्नातकोत्तर रप्रथम समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	द्वितीय

हिन्दी निबंध प्रतियोगिता (विद्यार्थी)

क्रम संख्या	नाम एवं कक्षा	पुरस्कार
1	श्री कौशल कुमार मलिक, स्नातकोत्तर रप्रथम समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	प्रथम
2	श्री अमित कुमार, स्नातकोत्तर रतृतीय समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	द्वितीय
3	श्री अपराजित चतुर्वेदी, स्नातकोत्तर रप्रथम समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	द्वितीय
4	श्री सुमित रावत, स्नातकोत्तर रप्रथम समेस्ट (अपराधशास्त्र)	सांत्वना पुरस्कार

लोक नायक जयप्रकाश नारायण राष्ट्रीय अपराध शास्त्र एवं विधि-विज्ञान संस्थान

LNJN National Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science

Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India

Rohini, Sector-3, Outer Ring Road, Delhi – 110085 (INDIA)

Tel.: 011-27521091, 27514161, 27511580, Fax: 011-27510586, 27511571; Web: www.nicfs.nic.in

CRIME hurts: Control it through scientific study